

Since 2006, the Diocese of Wilmington has posted on this website, the names of all known diocesan clergy or lay employees regarding whom there are admitted, corroborated or otherwise substantiated allegations of sexual abuse, molestation and rape of minors. Here is that list:

- Paul Calamari*
- Edward B. Carley¹
- Eugene F. Clarahan¹
- Francis P. Cornely¹
- Francis G. DeLuca¹
- Douglas W. Dempster
- Henry J. Dreyer¹
- Edward F. Dudzinski²
- Richard F. Gardiner¹
- Peter J. Harney¹
- William E. Irwin¹
- John A. Lind¹
- Leonard J. Mackiewicz¹
- Kenneth J. Martin
- Joseph A. McGovern
- John F. O'Brien¹
- William J. Porter
- Walter D. Power¹
- Francis J. Rogers
- John A. Sarro¹
- Gerard C. Smit*
- Carmen D. Vignola¹
- Harry D. Walker²
- Harry P. Weaver¹
- Charles W. Wiggins
-

*Priests of other dioceses who, at one time, worked in the Diocese of Wilmington.

All those listed above are or were priests. Many of the above are deceased¹. Those still alive have been removed from ministry. Some have been laicized².

The Catholic Diocese of Wilmington has released all survivors of clergy sexual abuse from any confidentiality provisions in settlement agreements, which they signed as a condition of such settlements. Additionally, the Diocese of Wilmington forbids confidentiality provisions in any settlement agreement related to sexual abuse entered into by the diocese and/or parish except at the written request of the survivor claimant.